Others in Attendance: Pat Rawlings, Cindy Dauck, Damien Steele, Lori Steimel, Joe Steimel, Mary Watson, Betty Late

Dr. Bounds opened the meeting at 6:08 p.m. Ms. Rawlings was introduced and provided the following information:

- Our GT Program offers 30 minutes each week to all K-3 students, 150 minutes each week to students that have been placed in GT 4-8 grades, and we offer Pre-AP and AP courses for students in grades 9-12. We also compete in chess, quiz bowl, the story store writing competition, and do many creative and critical thinking activities throughout the year.
- The high school offers the required 38 courses.
- We offer the following AP courses: Language, Lit, US History, Chemistry, Biology
- We offer concurrent credit courses through Black River Technical College
- We have two teachers that are not highly qualified. They are both in high school and are working on their certification.
- We have no teachers on an ALP at this time.

Mrs. Rawlings gave an update on the building projects we have going. The three roof projects are what is currently being worked on.

Ms. Dauck introduced the new hires in her building and Mrs. Steimel introduced the ones for her building.

There were not questions from the audience.

Meeting was adjourned at 6:14 p.m.
